

Available Space

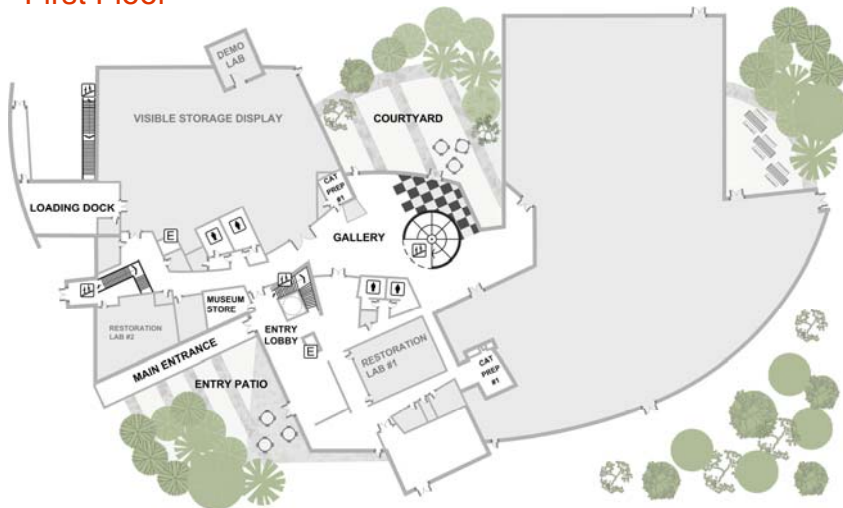

The Computer History Museum is unlike most hotel and conference facilities. You have the flexibility to use your own preferred service providers, including caterers, beverage and decor suppliers, AV firms and meeting planners, allowing for affordable, customized events. As an added benefit to your budget, make use of the Museum's events furniture and in-house state-of-the-art AV equipment, already included in our competitively-priced room rental rates, with no hidden fees or add-on charges.
